Title of this Research Study
Assessment of UNMC Faculty Efficacy and Development Needs

You are invited to share your views regarding faculty professional development so that we can study the faculty needs of our organization. By participating in this 15 minute survey, you may help guide the future resources and endeavors dedicated to the faculty community. For efficiency and convenience, this survey will be completed electronically. Given that each survey can be completed anytime, anywhere, and from any computer or mobile device (e.g., personal, work, school), we are unable to guarantee the security of the device on which you choose to enter your responses.

To study and publish our findings, Institutional Review Board approval for research has been obtained. The purpose of this research is to better understand the needs of health science faculty in the contemporary academic medical center climate.

The information you provide will remain strictly anonymous, however federal regulatory agencies and the UNMC Institutional Review Board may inspect and copy records pertaining to this research. By completing the short survey, you will be consenting to be a participant in this study. If we write a report or publication about this study, no participant can or will be identified. Your participation in this survey research is strictly voluntary. If you decide not complete the survey or if you end survey completion at any time, you will not be penalized or adversely affect your relationship with the investigator or the University of Nebraska Medical Center.

There are no known risks from being in this study. Some respondents may experience some psychological discomfort in weighing their career development needs. Participation in this study will not benefit you personally, however, we hope that faculty may benefit in the future from what we learn as a result of this effort.

If you have any questions, concerns, or complaints now or later, you may contact me at the number below or you may contact the IRB Office at 402.559.6463.

We know that your time is precious. Thank you for sharing your perspectives with us.

Sincerely,

Linda M. Love, EdD, MA
402.559.5509