Visa and Immigration

Online submission of H-1b applications

UNMC is now able to submit I-129 applications for H-1b sponsorship through the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) online system. Advantages include no longer having courier shipping costs, receiving a case number within a day and receiving immediate confirmation on credit card payments. Disadvantages include having a significantly longer time (4X) to complete each application and applications for H-4 dependents must be filed separately by H-1b employees and their dependents.
