Understand the functionality of EndNote

Insert citations into EndNote from the library's literature databases, websites, and adding manually.

Modify EndNote to meet your research and collaboration needs

Why Use a Citation Manager?

Zotero and EndNote allow you to :

- Manage all your citation records in one place
- Access and store full-text PDFs
- Generate bibliographies in preferred formats (ex: APA, Vancouver)
- Install writing tools for Word to create intext citations
- Share collections with colleagues
- Assist with the removal of duplicates

EndNote or Zotero?

EndNote (Desktop App)	Zotero
Requires installation on a PC or Mac; EndNote Online available	Desktop installation on PC or Mac; Cloud based available
Direct export (using Firefox) from databases and Google Scholar	Direct export from databases and Google Scholar
Fair to moderate learning curve	Fairly easy to learn
Can customize to meet research needs; groups; customize citations	Can customize to meet research needs; folders; customize citations
Create bibliography and in-text citations in Microsoft Word and Apple Pages; Microsoft 365 (online) option available (EndNote 21 only)	Create bibliography and in-text citations in Microsoft Word and Google Docs. Microsoft online: unformatted citations only

Getting Started

How to Access EndNote

EndNote 21 is available from the UNMC Research Information Technology Office (RITO)

https://www.unmc.edu/vcr/rito/software/endno te/index.html

There are separate instructions for UNMC owned workstations (Mac and Windows), personal Windows computers, and personal Mac computers.

Contact rito@unmc.edu for assistance with downloading the software

Wikipedia in the Classroom: A Literature Review

Starting in 2001, Wikipedia developed into an online information source and is a multilingual, online encyclopedia maintained by volunteers (also known as Wikipedians) [Wikipedia, 2023]. This online tool does not present original research but knowledge that has already been established [Wikipedia, 2023]. While this resource holds information on various topics (media, health, news events, historical figures, etc.), its use in education is highly debated. Wikipedia is often presumed to be unreliable because of its open-source collaborative editing structure [Guyen, 2020].

- 1. Place your cursor where you want the in-text citation to appear in your Word document
- 2. Click the Insert Citation button

Option 1: Insert selected Citation(s)

- Place your cursor where you want to cite in your Word document
- Select the citation in your EndNote library AND then click insert selected citations (or the quotation marks in your EndNote library)

Option 2: Insert Citation

- Place your cursor where you want the intext citation to appear in your Word document
- Search for citations by author, keyword, journal, etc.

If needing to cite from a shared group, use the drop-down option
