

Olson Center Brown Bag Speaker Profile: Kim and Justin Bainbridge

Labyrinth of Disability Services: How I learned to get the best assistance to provide the optimal opportunities for my adult child

Feb. 21, 2023

Kim Bainbridge is a retired accountant, formally working at the Munroe-Meyer Institute at the University of Nebraska Medical Center, and is a parent advocate for her son Justin. Justin Bainbridge, a graduate of the Millard Young Adult Program and now employed with Millard North High School, is a Down syndrome self-advocate. Each year, Kim and Justin provide numerous presentations throughout the Omaha area on parenting a child with disabilities and the specific avenues individuals can take to seek the care and support they need.

If you would like to contact Kim Bainbridge following this presentation, please reach her at kim.bainbridge@cox.net or 402.639.3184

Kim and Justin's presentation materials can be downloaded at unmc.edu/obgyn/community/brown-bag/bb-2022-2023.html