

Olson Center Brown Bag Speaker Profile:

Erin Barrett, MD

Ronald Sulewski, Jr., MD

The Hair Growth Cycle in Women and Common Hair Health Issues

Tues., Feb. 18, 2025

Erin Barrett, MD is an Associate Professor in the UNMC Department of Dermatology. Dr. Barrett is the Medical Director of the Inpatient Dermatology, Teledermatology & Outpatient Specialty Clinics, Director of Clinical Trials/Clinical Research, Director of the Skin of Color Clinic, and Co-Director of the Bullous Disease Clinic.

Dr. Barrett completed her Bachelor of Science in Chemistry from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) and her Doctor of Medicine from Harvard Medical School. She then completed a Transitional Internship in Medicine, Surgery, and Pediatrics at Cambridge Health Alliance – Harvard Medical School, which was followed by a Residency in Dermatology at the University of Miami's Department of Dermatology and Cutaneous Surgery. Dr. Barrett completed a certification in Management Essentials from Harvard Business School and an Executive Master of Business Administration from the University of Nebraska Omaha. Dr. Barrett is board certified with the American Board of Dermatology.

Ronald Sulewski, Jr., MD is an Assistant Professor in the UNMC Department of Dermatology, where he is also the Director of Laser and Aesthetic Dermatology.

Dr. Sulewski completed his Bachelor of Science in Biological Sciences from the University of Notre Dame and his Doctor of Medicine from Loyola University Chicago Stritch School of Medicine. He completed an Internal Medicine Internship at Resurrection Medical Center in Chicago before pursuing a Residency in Dermatology at the University of Miami's Department of Dermatology and Cutaneous Surgery. Dr. Sulewski is board certified with the American Board of Dermatology.

If you would like to have a dermatology appointment with the speakers or another dermatologist, please call the Dermatology Clinic at Nebraska Medicine, (402) 552-7928

Presentation handouts can be downloaded at:

unmc.edu/obgyn/community/brown-bag/bb-2024-2025.html