

Become a Certified Community Health Worker!

Community Health Workers (CHWs) are trusted members of the community who have the unique ability to help people get needed medical services, live healthier lifestyles, and build a stronger sense of community!

If you are interested in becoming a certified CHW, join this newly established statewide free training program!

Ten weeks of 100% online and interactive training.

Eight months of on-the-job training at local community or healthcare organizations.

Topics include:

- Social Determinants of Health
- Emergency Preparedness
- Mental and Behavioral Health Resources
- Patient Advocacy and Care Coordination
- Chronic Disease Management

Contact jessica.ern@unmc.edu or visit <https://redcap.link/CHWTrainingApplication> with any questions or for additional information

Apply by August 1st,
2023!

Classes start
September 18th,
2023

Requirements for Participation include:

- Have a passion for doing community health work
- Have a high school diploma or GED
- Be a US citizen or permanent resident of the US

Apply to receive:

- A certification of completion from UNMC
- Up to $7,500 allocated toward your training. Details can be found in the application.
- Potential job placement opportunities at the completion of the program when needed

Disclaimer. This program is supported by the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) as part of 3-year grant totaling $2,982,600 with 0% financed with non-governmental sources. The contents in this website are those of the UNMC program team and do not necessarily represent the official views of, nor an endorsement, by HRSA, HHS, or the U.S. Government.