National Coalition of 100 Black Women, Inc.

OMAHA METROPOLITAN CHAPTER

Presents

Bringing It in PINK

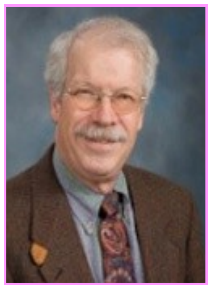
Breast Cancer Seminar

Saturday, October 20, 2012 - 9:00 AM-12:00 PM

University of Nebraska Medical Center

Durham Research Center Auditorium

(located on the west side of 45th Street at Emile)



"What African American Women Should Know About Breast Cancer"

Edibaldo Silva-Lopez, M.D., PhD
UNMC Surgical Oncology
Director, Community Breast Health
Navigator and Cancer Support Program
info@cbhncsp.org/ www.cbhncsp.org

"Help for Navigating Breast Cancer"

Phyllis A. Nsiah-Kumi, MD, MPH
UNMC Internal Medicine-Pediatrics
Co-Director, Community Breast Health
Navigator and Cancer Support Program
info@cbhncsp.org/ www.cbhncsp.org

"Understanding the Triple Negative Breast Cancer"

Jacqueline Hill, MSN, APRN
UNMC Nurse Practitioner
Co-Director, Community Breast Health
Navigator and Cancer Support Program
President of My Sister's Keeper
www.mysisterskeepernebr.org

Continental Breakfast Provided / Informational Booths

This program is free and open to the public

First 50 to register will be entered into a drawing for a "PINK" prize.
Must be present at the time of drawing on 10/20/12

Register at our website: www.ncbwomaha.com