This Saturday Latinas Tabaco y Cáncer, a tobacco and cancer awareness group led by CRHD, will be having a family day out in the park to celebrate the accomplishments that the women in the group have had. Such as the completion of our Latina’s Poetry Book, which you can get a copy of from our department (it’s in Spanish and English).

We will be getting together with our members and their families, sharing good food and conversation. We invite all of you to participate so you can meet these incredible women and also share in the fun time we will be having.

Where: Mandan Park 6215 13th St, Omaha, the park is located between Harrison and Jefferson streets on the South Side Shelter

When: 11am-3pm, Saturday, September 22, 2012

What: Please bring any dish enough for 8-10 people

Latinas Tabaco y Cáncer

‘El Grito’ (Mexican/Latin Am. Independence) parade